

CD IELTS Listening Test 50 — Results

6.5

IELTS Band Score

28 / 40 correct

Part 1
9/10

Part 2
8/10

Part 3
6/10

Part 4
5/10

Detailed Results

1 ✓ Correct

Your answer: jamieson

Correct: Jamieson

"It's on Jamieson Island... J A M I E S O N. It was named after a famous explorer." — the resort is on Jamieson Island.

2 ✓ Correct

Your answer: 11 july

Correct: 11 July

"They would need you to begin from the 11th of July." — the start date is 11 July (12 May is only the application deadline).

3 ✓ Correct

Your answer: waiter

Correct: waiter

"There is a vacancy in the Calypso Bistro. That's for a waiter." — the bistro job is a waiter.

4 ✓ Correct

Your answer: sing

Correct: sing

"They definitely need people who can sing." — Guest Liaison staff must be able to sing (piano is not useful, as they already have a band).

5 ✓ Correct

Your answer: children

Correct: children

"They definitely need people who have worked with children for that reason." — activities staff need experience

They definitely need people who have worked with children for that vacancy. — activities staff need experience with children.

6 ✓ Correct

Your answer: drive

Correct: drive

"A requirement for this role is that you can drive." — reception porters must be able to drive the golf buggies.

7 ✓ Correct

Your answer: transport

Correct: transport

"Staff don't have to pay for transport to and from the island." — transport is free (accommodation is only for permanent employees).

8 ✓ Correct

Your answer: meals

Correct: meals

"What about meals? Yes, they're provided when you're on duty." — meals are provided.

9 ✓ Correct

Your answer: thursday

Correct: Thursday

"Can we do it on Thursday as I work on Wednesdays? Fine. Is two o'clock okay?" — the interview is on Thursday at 2 pm.

10 ✗ Incorrect

Your answer: qualificator

Correct: photo

"They've asked everyone to provide a photo as well, so they can remember who is who." — bring a CV and a photo.

11 ✓ Correct

Your answer: B

Correct: B

"The walk is mainly aimed at families. We want to help people to walk with their children." — organised for parents with their children (B).

12 ✓ Correct

Your answer: C

Correct: C

"For most of the walk's history, we set a maximum of 220 walkers. But this year we've been able to expand to 280." — the maximum this year is 280 (C).

13 ✗ IncorrectYour answer: ACorrect: B

"The only time we do that is if people behave badly at the start." — walkers are stopped if they cause trouble (B); those without proper clothing are helped, not turned away.

14 ✓ CorrectYour answer: CCorrect: C

"A couple of years ago, the organizers made a decision to cancel because we didn't get as many volunteers as we needed to act as stewards." — cancelled because of problems getting people to help (C).

15 ✓ CorrectYour answer: ACorrect: A

"If you want one, you have to order it one week before the walk, and you'll get it by post two weeks after the walk." — badges are only obtained if ordered before the walk (A).

16 ✗ IncorrectYour answer: ACorrect: C

"It must be emphasized that this doesn't mean that you wear thick trousers like jeans. Lighter, waterproof apparel is better." — advised NOT to have thick trousers (C).

17 ✓ CorrectYour answer: BCorrect: B

"Some people like to bring their mobile phones, but there isn't always a good signal." — walkers can bring one if they wish (B).

18 ✓ CorrectYour answer: CCorrect: C

"Some people asked if they should bring a torch, but frankly, they're a waste of space and weight." — advised NOT to have a torch (C).

19 ✓ CorrectYour answer: BCorrect: B

"Whether you carry things like high energy drinks is up to you." — walkers can have this, if they wish (B).

20 ✓ CorrectYour answer: ACorrect: A

"We say it's a very good idea to bring a rucksack." — walkers are advised to have this (A).

21 ✗ Incorrect

Your answer: F

Correct: C

"There was National Geographic. The thing there that struck me was a facility for creating tailor-made maps." — it contains a useful tool for users (C).

22 ✗ Incorrect

Your answer: C

Correct: A

"The United Nations website... had masses of useful stuff. Only I couldn't get at it. It was for subscribers only." — information is not freely accessible (A).

23 ✓ Correct

Your answer: G

Correct: G

"There were some population statistics there... but there didn't seem to be any figures for energy use." — some information is missing (G).

24 ✓ Correct

Your answer: B

Correct: B

"The only thing is it went into more depth than was necessary for our assignment." — the British Petroleum site is too detailed for their purposes (B).

25 ✓ Correct

Your answer: E

Correct: E

"It seemed to be the only place I looked at that had data for this current year." — the CIA site has up-to-date information (E).

26 ✗ Incorrect

Your answer: A

Correct: H

"I also found stuff on the World Bank site, and that had figures going back quite a long way." — useful historical information (H).

27 ✓ Correct

Your answer: B, D

Correct: B, D

B: "One thing we've got to be careful about is biting off more than we can chew" — they limit the scale. D: "The top ten consumers of energy in the region, and also the bottom 10" — two groups of countries.

28 ✓ CorrectYour answer: B, DCorrect: B, D

B: they agree to limit the scale of the investigation. D: they will collect data about the top ten and bottom ten energy consumers — two groups of countries.

29 ✓ CorrectYour answer: D, ECorrect: B, E

B: "I'll volunteer to search out all of the raw data we need if you're prepared to do the necessary number crunching" — Charlie collects the basic figures. E: "Do you mind doing the text? You've got a better way with words" — Charlie drafts the written sections.

30 ✗ IncorrectYour answer: D, ECorrect: B, E

Charlie collects the basic figures (B) and drafts the written sections (E); Delia does the number crunching, the graphics, and the final review.

31 ✓ CorrectYour answer: successCorrect: success

"Include a comment on whether you think the monument works. By that I mean its success." — comment on the success of the monument.

32 ✗ IncorrectYour answer: soicalCorrect: social

"A discussion of its social importance, how relevant it was for the people of the time." — its social significance.

33 ✗ IncorrectYour answer: textCorrect: plans

"Insert any plans you can find and make sure any photographs you use have captions." — illustrate with plans and photos.

34 ✗ IncorrectYour answer: (blank)Correct: influence

"I'll want to read about any particular influence you think is apparent in the design." — the influence of a style (e.g. classical Greek, Bauhaus, Art Nouveau).

35 ✓ CorrectYour answer: materialsCorrect: materials

"I want information about the choice of materials, not only those which were used, but reasons why they may have been selected." — the materials used in construction.

36 ✗ IncorrectYour answer: (blank)Correct: skills

"I'll want a mention of any particular skills that were necessary in the construction too." — specialist skills required.

37 ✓ CorrectYour answer: reasonCorrect: reason

"Firstly, was the reason for erecting the monument a valid one?" — the reason for building the monument.

38 ✓ CorrectYour answer: emotionalCorrect: emotional

"Then think about its emotional impact. When someone looks at it, how do they feel?" — its emotional effect on the public.

39 ✓ CorrectYour answer: environmentCorrect: environment

"Don't forget to consider how well the monument sits in its environment. Does it harmonize with it or does it clash with it?" — how well it suits its environment.

40 ✗ IncorrectYour answer: constructedCorrect: analysis

"You don't get extra marks for lots of factual information. You get those for a well constructed analysis." — credit is given for good analysis.

Detailed Explanations

Q#	Correct Answer	Explanation
Q1	Jamieson	"It's on Jamieson Island... J A M I E S O N. It was named after a famous explorer." — the resort is on Jamieson Island.
Q2	11 July	"They would need you to begin from the 11th of July." — the start date is 11 July (12 May is only the application deadline).

Q3	waiter	"There is a vacancy in the Calypso Bistro. That's for a waiter." — the bistro job is a waiter.
Q4	sing	"They definitely need people who can sing." — Guest Liaison staff must be able to sing (piano is not useful, as they already have a band).
Q5	children	"They definitely need people who have worked with children for that vacancy." — activities staff need experience with children.
Q6	drive	"A requirement for this role is that you can drive." — reception porters must be able to drive the golf buggies.
Q7	transport	"Staff don't have to pay for transport to and from the island." — transport is free (accommodation is only for permanent employees).
Q8	meals	"What about meals? Yes, they're provided when you're on duty." — meals are provided.
Q9	Thursday	"Can we do it on Thursday as I work on Wednesdays? Fine. Is two o'clock okay?" — the interview is on Thursday at 2 pm.
Q10	photo	"They've asked everyone to provide a photo as well, so they can remember who is who." — bring a CV and a photo.
Q11	B	"The walk is mainly aimed at families. We want to help people to walk with their children." — organised for parents with their children (B).
Q12	C	"For most of the walk's history, we set a maximum of 220 walkers. But this year we've been able to expand to 280." — the maximum this year is 280 (C).
Q13	B	"The only time we do that is if people behave badly at the start." — walkers are stopped if they cause trouble (B); those without proper clothing are helped, not turned away.
Q14	C	"A couple of years ago, the organizers made a decision to cancel because we didn't get as many volunteers as we needed to act as stewards." — cancelled because of problems getting people to help (C).
Q15	A	"If you want one, you have to order it one week before the walk, and you'll get it by post two weeks after the walk." — badges are only obtained if ordered before the walk (A).
Q16	C	"It must be emphasized that this doesn't mean that you wear thick trousers like jeans. Lighter, waterproof apparel is better." — advised NOT to have thick trousers (C).
Q17	B	"Some people like to bring their mobile phones, but there isn't always a good signal." — walkers can bring one if they wish (B).
Q18	C	"Some people asked if they should bring a torch, but frankly, they're a waste of space and weight." — advised NOT to have a torch (C).
Q19	B	"Whether you carry things like high energy drinks is up to you." — walkers can have this, if they wish (B).
Q20	A	"We say it's a very good idea to bring a rucksack." — walkers are advised to have this (A).
Q21	C	"There was National Geographic. The thing there that struck me was a facility for creating tailor-made maps." — it contains a useful tool for users (C).

Q22	A	"The United Nations website... had masses of useful stuff. Only I couldn't get at it. It was for subscribers only." — information is not freely accessible (A).
Q23	G	"There were some population statistics there... but there didn't seem to be any figures for energy use." — some information is missing (G).
Q24	B	"The only thing is it went into more depth than was necessary for our assignment." — the British Petroleum site is too detailed for their purposes (B).
Q25	E	"It seemed to be the only place I looked at that had data for this current year." — the CIA site has up-to-date information (E).
Q26	H	"I also found stuff on the World Bank site, and that had figures going back quite a long way." — useful historical information (H).
Q27	B, D	B: "One thing we've got to be careful about is biting off more than we can chew" — they limit the scale. D: "The top ten consumers of energy in the region, and also the bottom 10" — two groups of countries.
Q28	B, D	B: they agree to limit the scale of the investigation. D: they will collect data about the top ten and bottom ten energy consumers — two groups of countries.
Q29	B, E	B: "I'll volunteer to search out all of the raw data we need if you're prepared to do the necessary number crunching" — Charlie collects the basic figures. E: "Do you mind doing the text? You've got a better way with words" — Charlie drafts the written sections.
Q30	B, E	Charlie collects the basic figures (B) and drafts the written sections (E); Delia does the number crunching, the graphics, and the final review.
Q31	success	"Include a comment on whether you think the monument works. By that I mean its success." — comment on the success of the monument.
Q32	social	"A discussion of its social importance, how relevant it was for the people of the time." — its social significance.
Q33	plans	"Insert any plans you can find and make sure any photographs you use have captions." — illustrate with plans and photos.
Q34	influence	"I'll want to read about any particular influence you think is apparent in the design." — the influence of a style (e.g. classical Greek, Bauhaus, Art Nouveau).
Q35	materials	"I want information about the choice of materials, not only those which were used, but reasons why they may have been selected." — the materials used in construction.
Q36	skills	"I'll want a mention of any particular skills that were necessary in the construction too." — specialist skills required.
Q37	reason	"Firstly, was the reason for erecting the monument a valid one?" — the reason for building the monument.
Q38	emotional	"Then think about its emotional impact. When someone looks at it, how do they feel?" — its emotional effect on the public.
Q39	environment	"Don't forget to consider how well the monument sits in its environment. Does it harmonize with it or does it clash with it?" — how well it suits its environment.
Q40	analysis	"You don't get extra marks for lots of factual information. You get those for a well constructed analysis." — credit is given for good analysis.
